

The Sweet Tree

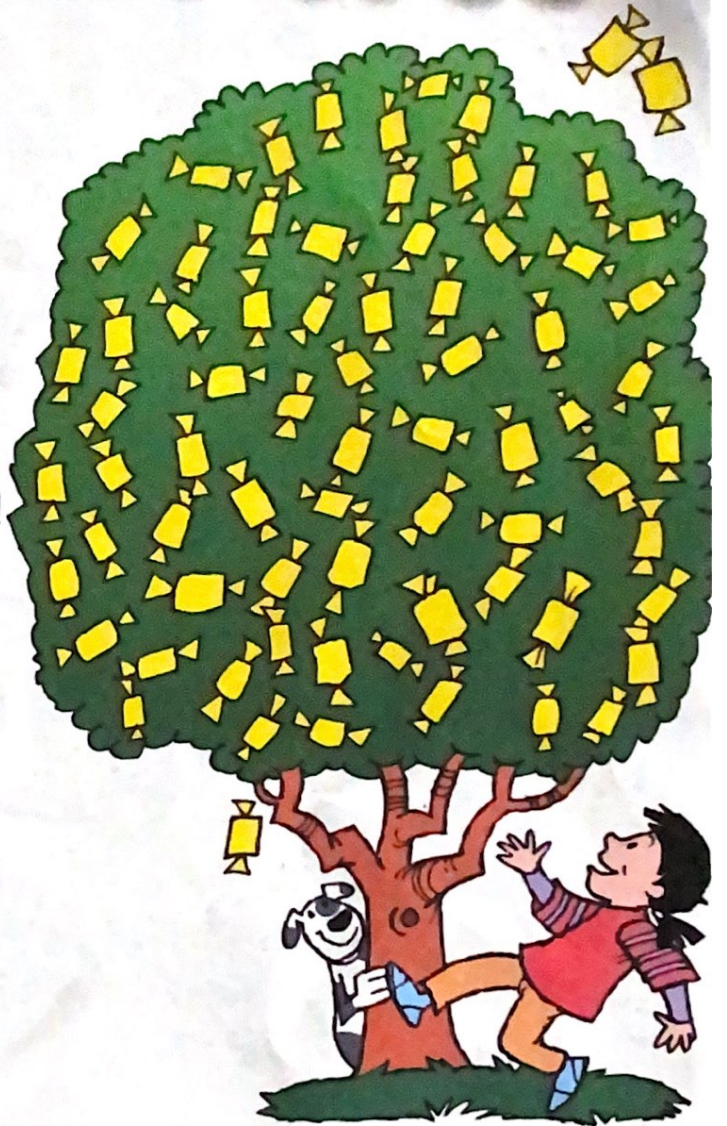

Nell made a cake for Granny. It was full of cherries. Granny loves cherries! 'Yummy!' said Granny and she gave Nell a sweet in golden paper. 'Don't eat this sweet,' she told Nell. 'Plant it in your back garden.'

When Nell went home, she dug a hole in her garden. She dropped the sweet into the hole. She thought that it was a silly thing to do. She wasn't very happy.

The next day Nell looked out the window. She saw that a big tree had grown up overnight. She ran outside and saw that all the leaves on the tree were sweets in golden paper! She was really happy now. ■
